Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312/Kenny, Mr. DEM

November 8, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the offices of the International Motor Co., New Brunswick, N.J., arriving there at 9 a.m.

Operative interviewed Mr. Swivel, who offered Operative a laboring job in the plant, which Operative accepted. Mr. Swivel then advised Operative to return the following morning and start for work.

Upon leaving the International Motor Co.'s offices, Operative proceeded to the railroad station and joined Garry Kenny. Garry informed Operative that he heard several reporters remark that there would be a Warrant out for Mrs. Hall's arrest in a couple of days - In fact Garry had been informed that the Officials were going to make three arrests this week. Operative could not learn from Garry, the people the Officials intended to arrest.

After a time Operative left Garry Kenny and proceeded about Town, returning to the vicinity of the railroad station at about 3 p.m., and joining Mr. DeM. Operative remained in conference with Mr. DeM. for about fifteen minutes and then proceeded to the cut-rate Cigar Store on Albany St. near George Street.

While in the last mentioned store, Operative learned that the man as mentioned in previous reports as speaking favorably of Mrs. Hall, was named Yegge. Also while in the Cut-Rate Cigar Store, Operative learned that Kirby who is the Constable and is located over at the Court House, has got to watch his step as some of the Officials are sore on him since the Hayes affair.

During the early evening, Operative visited the pool-room at #425 George St., and while in the pool-room Operative overheard a fellow remark, "Well the fellow who did that job was well paid, and he is nowhere about this part of the country." The element that hangs out in the pool-room are very conversant concerning the sporting houses about Town, and seems to know all
